

McQuaid Cross Country Invitational Open Race

The RIT River Road Running Club & the McQuaid Jesuit High School Alumni Association are joining together in an attempt to collect the complete results of the McQuaid Cross Country Invitational Open Races. The results obtained thus far will be listed on these pages. We gratefully accept changes, corrections and additional information with regards to the Open Race portion of the Invitational. Personal comments added to original result documents have been placed in italics. Send all corrections/info/questions to: Bill Quinlisk at billq@frontiernet.net

McQuaid Jesuit

McQuaid Jesuit High School, named for the first Catholic bishop of Rochester, the Most Reverend Bernard J. McQuaid, D.D., is a private, Jesuit college preparatory school for young men in grades 7 to 12. It is located at the southeast corner of Clinton Avenue and Elmwood Avenue in Brighton, a suburb of Rochester, NY. Ground was broken for the 32 acre campus on 23 June 1953, and the building was completed by September, 1955. The first class of McQuaid Jesuit (196 students) was admitted on 8 September 1954. That group of young men, together with the new first year class, started the school's second year in the new complex on 7 September 1955.

The First Invitational

The first McQuaid Cross Country Invitational was held in 1965. The races started and finished at the school's Brighton campus and partly ran through the streets. Fittingly, the very first Varsity Champion was McQuaid Athletic Hall-of-Famer, Eric Kendrick, who was undefeated in all of his Cross Country races that season. The McQuaid Invitational was the brain child of Bob Bradley, an English teacher at McQuaid, who also served as the Cross Country, Indoor and Outdoor Track Coach at the school. He founded the McQuaid Invitational back in 1965 because local schools did not have a competition planned for that weekend. Over the years, what began as a small series of races turned into one of the largest High School sponsored cross country meets in the nation. After only 3 years the McQuaid Invitational had outgrown the school's Brighton campus and area streets. In 1968 the McQuaid Invitational moved to the Henrietta campus of the Rochester Institute of Technology (R.I.T.) where it stayed for 5 years. In 1972 torrential rains and thousands of runners combined to tear up the athletic fields at RIT. In 1973 the McQuaid Invitational moved to a permanent home in Genesee Valley Park.

Coach Bob Bradley

According to McQuaid Alumnus, Michael Ansaldi, Bob Bradley's fondness of a Jesuit education began at St. Peter's Prep back in New Jersey. He recalls his own running career by quickly retorting, "I was one of the last people to finish the races." Upon graduation from St. Pete's, young Bradley entered the Marines and traveled to Korea. He praises his company commander for keeping him alive and out of combat. His memories of Korea were an incredibly enjoyable experience for growing and learning. After returning to the states, Bob attended Fordham University in New York. It is here where he recalls contemplating life as an English teacher. After skipping a test for one of his English classes, his professor spotted and questioned him. Bob responded honestly, saying he was unprepared for the test. The professor told Bob to have confidence in himself and gave him an oral exam on the subject. As Bob remembers, the professor stayed away from tough material and instead asked easy questions. It was at Fordham where Bob began to realize the importance of educators and their influence on the students. When Bob left Fordham for McQuaid Jesuit High School, it was from the advisement of a Jesuit teacher at Fordham. He felt a call to continue down the path of a Jesuit education. Upon arriving in Rochester, Bob quickly found himself immersed in the close knit McQuaid community. The young bachelor religiously attended mass, sporting events, and stayed after school to help his students. His freshman level classes read and studied Bob's favorite novel, J.D. Salinger's, The Catcher in the Rye. Bob used the book because "high school students can relate to and understand" its main character, Holden Caulfield. In customary fashion, a Jesuit friend came to the young teacher when the Cross Country team was in need of a coach after Terry Foley, McQuaid's first coach, left for Penfield High School. Bob decided to test his own endurance on the track that afternoon to see if he would be able to jog with the runners to Cobb's Hill, a destination approximately one and a half miles away. Upon completion of his own physical test, Bob Bradley became the coach of the Cross Country team.

With his life revolving around McQuaid, it is no surprise that Bob met his wife, Ann Marie, in the basement just down the hall from his office. They were introduced by Fr. O'Malley, S.J., who is well known for his performance in the movie The Exorcist. The two married in August of 1968. Their three children and numerous grandchildren have grown up under the principles that Bob has devoted to his career, students and family.

Recalling the early years with Bob brought back memories of Diocesan championship meets with tight scores between rival Catholic schools. Bob remembers the details of races as if they just occurred. Today when runners approach the now retired coach, they always leave shocked at the phenomenal memory and ever vibrant and engaging personality. Bob is quick to mention the stunning races of the likes of greats like Erik Kendrick, Peter Glavin, Chris Horton, and Brad Sumner. The countless stories of spectacular finishes, numerous championships, and record-breaking performances are understandable for a coach to recall. However, Bob Bradley is just as quick to recant stories of runners who never gave up even with a lack of natural talent. They push themselves to remarkable things and often times are the difference makers on teams, he states. These are the runners that are there every day of practice, every meet (even if they aren't racing), and turn themselves into 'new runners' over the summer, fueled by a drive to make a difference. Cross-country is considered by most as the prize season of high school distance running. According to Bob, "Cross-country is pure. You need five runners to sacrifice to make a championship team. It is not just one individual who can win a race for the team." Bradley encouraged all students who were not involved with other teams to come out and learn the beauty and fun of running. This encouragement led to some great runners coming out and stepping up to complete a team.

When reflecting on his legacy, many recall Bob's coaching accolades. However, his pride for the McQuaid education meant that excellence off the field was most important on the team. Commitment to faith was never forgotten, with the teams praying before every race and going to masses each season. Also, at award ceremonies the 'Vince Lombardi Award' is given to the team member who shows a commitment to faith, team, and sport. Bob will also attend funerals to show support for students and alumni who face the death of a loved one. The most important part of his career was his position as a provider of opportunity. Bob would say about his athletes "[he] was just driving, they had to race". Bob Bradley would always make sure his teams had the opportunity to race against the best talent they were capable of competing with. This played a role in his constant drive to improve and expand the McQuaid Invitational into, what one runner remarked, "the Woodstock of Cross-country races." He provided opportunity to city school runners by directing and organizing the City-Catholic league for years. He also helped to organize the first Rochester Indoor Track League. He is a constant advocate for many people in need of help.

Bob is truly a 'salt of the earth' type of person. When discussing the success of Bob's career one should not forget it is the product of a life spent serving others. Bob's devotion to his profession, values and faith has enabled him to make a mark on the world, especially in McQuaid and the Rochester running community. He is, quite simply, an inspiring and remarkable person. If you're at the McQuaid Invitational, stop by and say "hello" to Bob – he's the man in the middle of the chaos still serving as race announcer.

On September 28, 1975, the 11th Annual McQuaid Jesuit High School Cross Country Invitational was held at Genesee Valley Park. This event, begun as a partial road race from the school's Brighton campus in 1965, had already turned into one of the biggest high school cross country meets in the country. The Invitational had grown too big for the school's Brighton campus and after a muddy year at the Rochester Institute of Technology's Henrietta campus, had found a permanent home at Genesee Valley Park. The leadoff race of the 1975 McQuaid Invitational would be a six-mile Open race organized and directed by McQuaid Alumnus Bill Quinlisk, (Class of 1969) who was an assistant XC Coach at McQuaid and served as assistant Meet Director to Bob Bradley. The first Open Race was co-sponsored by McQuaid H.S. and the Greater Rochester Track Club. (At the time Bill Quinlisk was also President of the GRTC)

Trivia Fact: Bill Quinlisk competed in the very first McQuaid Invitational in the Fall of 1965 as a McQuaid Freshman. He was not one of the top finishers.

22 finishers did not make this a very important race. But, it was a beginning. The small field in 1975 was filled with Rochester running notables, including: GRTC Hall-of-Fame members Len Bagley, Dave Winn and Bill Quinlisk. The race winner, local Aquinas H.S. and Villanova University grad, Dick Buerkle, would go on to set the world record for the indoor mile and represent the U.S.A. in the 5000m at the 1976 Montreal Olympic Games. And of course who could forget Roger Tumasonis? The "R.T." Turkey Run, run annually since 1978, is named after this Gates-Chili and MCC grad.

The results from Race #3 as printed in one of the early editions of the GRTC Newsletter only used the first initial and last name in results. I have added first names when known. Anyone who wishes to help complete these results should e-mail Bill Quinlisk at billq@frontiernet.net

Notable names in this year's race included long-time Newark, NY, High School coach Joe Contario (a very close 2nd place finisher), former SUNY Brockport and Mansfield, Pa. coach Ed Winrow (24th, 1st Master. This race marked the only appearance of McQuaid HS alum Chris Horton (7th, 35:10). Chris was the 1976 NCAA Division III National Champion at 1500m in 3:46.9 while a senior at Brandeis University. Chris Horton is still the Section V record holder in the one mile with an outstanding 4:07.03 converted 1600m time set in 1973 at the Golden West Track Meet while a senior at McQuaid HS. Nothing is known of race winner, Dan Mazur.

E-mail received from Chris Barber:

"I stumbled upon these results while surfing the Web from home in Virginia, outside D.C. I finished 6th in the '77 race -- you can add my first name, Chris. (I remember the race pretty well because Chris Horton was behind me, and everyone was yelling "Go Chris!" and I pretended it was for me!) I graduated from Gates Chili in '77 and went to Mansfield after that. Ed Winrow was my Coach and he ran the race that year too. I remember Pete Glavin from high school races. He was probably a couple years behind me. Whatever happened to Roger Tumasonis, Bruce Quimby and Rich Saxton? Thanks for posting these results; it was cool to recall that race." - Chris Barber

Race Synopsis: World Indoor Mile record holder Dick Buerkle ran stride-for-stride with Cornell grad, newly-moved to Rochester, the then unknown, Craig Holm, for most of the double loop course. Averaging around 5:05 per mile on the rolling hills course, Buerkle outkicked Holm, in the last 200 yards. The 6.4 mile race was the opening run of the 20 race, 3000 runner, 120 High School teams McQuaid Invitational and for the first time featured an Alumni Team division. Senior age group (30-39) winner was GRTC XC Coach Dave Winn (10th) because 30 year old Derck Frechette (4th) ran in the Open division. John Coons (22nd) won the Master division (40+) beating rival Paul Shanahan (23rd) by 7 seconds. Women's winner was again Barb Miller (36th). Leading the McQuaid Alumni Team to victory was Mike Hasenauer ('70) in 32nd place.

This was the first appearance in Rochester of Craig Holm. Hired as a hospital administrator at Strong Memorial, Craig was fresh out of Cornell University. Who was this guy who was trying to challenge Dick Buerkle, the world record holder in the indoor mile – we all wondered. Dick Buerkle had his hands full and was really pushed to hold off Craig Holm – who went on to a very successful running career in the Rochester area for the next 10 years. Look carefully through these results and I'm sure that you will recognize many other runner's names of those who have also gone on to create a legacy for themselves in the Greater Rochester area.

Note: The odd race distance of 6.4 miles was due to a mistake. I still have the original course map. The distance is listed as 6.0 miles on the map but after the race we re-measured and found out that runners had actually completed a 6.4 mile course. The convoluted course looped through the Glen at Genesee Valley Park and included portions of the river trail, golf course service road and 4 arched bridges over the Barge (nee Erie) Canal.

McQuaid Invitational Open 4.5 Mile Race –according to course map

(note: race is also listed as 4.3 miles in the partial results)

At Genesee Valley Park

1st Jim Lear/Steve Pulos 21:22

1st W Mary Beth Glavin 28:08

All that is known of the 1979 McQuaid Invitational Open Race are the names of the winners and their times. I have the original course map showing a 2-loop mostly road course that started and finished at the same locations as the High School races. The odd distance was the result of the Rt. 390 expressway construction.

There was a tie for first in the Men's race as local runner Steve Pulos and Jim Lear, who I remember being a high school coach at Central Catholic in the Pittsburgh (PA) area, crossed the line together in 21:22. They had worked hard together from the start and settled on a friendly tie at the end. The women's champion was Mary Beth Glavin in 28:08. Mary Beth Glavin is the sister of McQuaid Alumnus, and XC Invitational Meet Director, the late Peter Glavin.

This was the first year that the open race was run after the High School races and over the same course. Race time was 3:30 p.m. A special Catholic School Alumni Challenge Cup was offered to the top 5 runner team of alumni from McQuaid, Aquinas, Kearney and Mooney. See the race summary below for the results of the challenge.

Race Summary: The race was run under ideal conditions following a great High School meet. The High School portion involved some 2500 runners from 110 schools. In the open race run over the High School Boy's Varsity course, a group of 4 runners established the early pace. Local Senior star Dave Winn led through the hilly first mile in 4:59. Leo Finucane, Mike Hoban and Coach Jim Lear from Pittsburgh Catholic HS were all tightly bunched behind Winn. Leo Finucane forged ahead in the second mile and was never headed after that. Mike Hoban made a late charge aided by a wrong turn by Finucane on the well-marked course but Leo proved the stronger kicker and won by a stride.

The race was also highlighted by the inauguration of the Alumni Challenge Cup. Five-runner teams of local HS alumni vied for the massive trophy. The McQuaid Alumni team ran a tight pack of 11, 12, 19, 21 and 22 to hold off a Leo Finucane led Aquinas Alumni team who finished 1, 20, 32, 33 and 40. This portion of the race will be continued so round up your team for the 1981 race.

Looking at the distaff side of the race, Barb Miller was never seriously challenged and ran strong the entire way. Divisional winners were Carolyn Cloos and Barb Bergeron. Ken Berkes won the Master Men's division.

The following was taken from the McQuaid Alumni Newsletter:

This year the McQuaid Invitational Cross Country meet had a special added attraction. In the open 3 mile race sponsored by the Greater Rochester Track Club a special Alumni Challenge trophy was offered to the top 5-runner team of local High School alumni. Fittingly, the challenge was won by the team from McQuaid led by Brian Hart ('75) who finished 11th overall in a field of some of the Rochester area's top runners. Other McQuaid finishers included Mike Hasenauer ('70) in 12th, Pete Clark ('69) in 19th, Bob Wafer ('69) who flew in from California to place 21st and Steve Burnett ('79) the current McQuaid Freshman XC Coach who rounded out a well-grouped team with a 22nd place finish. The open race was truly a McQuaid alumni affair as Bill Quinlisk ('69) was the race director and several other members of the McQuaid faculty participated. Other alumni of interest: 1st place – Leo Finucane – Aquinas '76, and McQuaid alumni Time Jones ('74) 35th, Kevin Burnett ('75) 55th, Steve Fahy ('68) 58th, Gary Jones (Faculty) 60th, and Steve Moulton ('79) 61st. The rotating Alumni Challenge Trophy is on display in the Principal's Office at McQuaid and it is hoped that even more alumni will run next year's race.

Note: Sadly, the Alumni Challenge Trophy only lasted until the 1986. The 4 foot tall Trophy was won that year by an alumni team from Batavia HS and never returned.

The only extant results from the 1981 race are as follows:

Chris Fleischman won the 3-mile race in 16:15.

There is a notation on the entry blank for 1982's race where the past winners were listed that indicates "mud" after Fleischman's 1981 winning time.

Lynne Fox was the Women's champion in 20:29.

The McQuaid Alumni team won the Challenge Cup and was led by Mike Hasenauer's 9th place finish.

All other results from 1981 are missing.

Race Synopsis: The race went out very fast with the lead pack passing the first mile of a rolling hill course in 4:45. Bob Birecree and Leo Finucane forged the pace most of the race with Birecree out kicking former Aquinas H.S. teammate Finucane in the last 100m to win by six tenths of a second. Former Williamsville North H.S. star Karl Blaeuer, now at U. of R., was third six seconds back. In spite of the 1-2 finish of Birecree and Finucane, the Aquinas Alumni team was beaten by the defending champs from McQuaid. Aquinas placed 1, 2, 29, 49 and 62 for a total of 143 points. While the McQuaid Alums, led by Tim Jones and Mike Hasenauer held places

12,15,26,32 and 37 for 122 points and the win. They were followed by the Gates-Chili and East Rochester Alumni teams. Several runners did not finish as they ran off course. Before the Open race there were 17 different High School races with over 3500 runners. Note: several of the High Schoolers also ran off course.

Note: I have no information on the Women's champion, Denise Smith.

103 Starters, 93 Finishers

Race Synopsis: The 9th edition of the 3-mile Open race at the McQuaid Invitational Cross Country Meet run at Genesee Valley Park saw Dave Coyne of Avon establish a new course record of 15:05 for the relatively flat course. The race was run under ideal conditions for those of us use to hot and humid Rochester summers. There were 10 dnf's due to the heat and humidity. Coyne led a pack containing the top seven finishers right from the gun and only 2nd place Ray Stemmer was able to stay anywhere near once past the first mile. Lynne Fox of Gates-Chili led the women finishers in 19:44 (53rd overall) beating 2nd place Mary Beth Glavin of now defunct St. Agnes HS by 25 seconds. The special Alumni Challenge Cup awarded to the top 5-runner team from the same High School again went to McQuaid Alums. The McQuaid Alumni team of Tim Jones (13), Mike Hasenauer (22), Bill Kehoe (39), John Hurley (45 with a pit stop) and Bill Quinlisk (52) held off strong challenges from teams East, Penfield, Sperry and Aquinas Alumni to win for the 4th year in a row. Can no one stop this domination?

Master (40-49)	John Coons	-
Veteran (50+)	Ray Feasey	-

Thanks to Mark Farrell, Paul Sadler and Pete Clark for their help in assisting at this race.

Note: The open race course has stayed 3 miles since 1980. Long-time McQuaid High School XC Coach and Invitational Founder and Director, Bob Bradley, often made changes to the racecourse configuration. The course has basically stayed in the area of the park known as the "Glen". There have been loops added and subtracted over the years. Hill loops have been included one year and the next the race would add the paved bike path under the expressway bridges. Bob Bradley always tried to make the course as spectator friendly as possible. In doing this he allowed the large crowd of parents, friends and coaches to view much of the race.

The 10th Annual McQuaid Invitational was run under ideal conditions. With the temperature a comfortable 55-60 degrees, no wind and a dry, well-marked course, the conditions were perfect. Scott Bagley took advantage of the conditions as he ran the fastest time ever run on this 3-mile course. His time of 14:29.5 is faster than the over 20,000 runners who have run this course over the years. Earlier in the day, during the High School portion of the Invitational, Ron Markezich of Williamsville, NY ran the course record of 14:40.2, which, until Scott, was the best ever. Ron's time will still stand as the High School course record but now Scott Bagley doesn't have to take a backseat to any High Schooler in the State. Helping Scott to this top time was the steady pressure supplied by 2nd place finisher Pete Glavin whose 14:41 time is the 3rd best ever run on the course. Lynne Fox handily won the Women's title and became a 3-time winner of this race by lowering her time from last year by over a minute.

For the 5th year in a row, the McQuaid High School Alumni won the special Alumni Challenge Cup by dominating the team scoring. With their top 5 finishers placing 2, 9, 16, 18 and 26 they easily outdistanced the half-hearted efforts to dethrone them from the alumni of East, Aquinas, Hilton, east Rochester and Brighton.

The High School portion of the Invitational constituting 20 races and over 3500 runners from 160 schools ran like clockwork. The entire day of racing was a tremendous spectacle. Next year's date is Saturday, September 28th. Let's hope that the McQuaid Alumni team gets a challenge from someone.

Scott Bagley's outstanding time would remain the course record for 8 years. Both Scott Bagley and runner-up finisher Pete Glavin would never again run as fast over 3 miles as they did on this beautiful Fall day. However, both men have had very successful running careers, which continue to the present day. Pete Glavin would go on to found the Genesee Valley Harriers running club and become the Meet Director of the McQuaid Invitational. Pete Glavin passed away in 2010. Bagley has become a local legend and is known as the "King of the Roads" in the Rochester Area.

85 Starters

11th Annual McQuaid Invitational 3-mile Open Race.

Race synopsis: Two roads diverged in a yellow wood and...

The 3-mile Open race finished off a great day of running at the annual McQuaid High School Cross Country Invitational. The 85 starters made it the smallest of the 21 races run on a brilliant Fall day over a fast, dry Genesee Valley Park racecourse. Brothers Charlie and Tim McMullen charged into the lead by the 400m mark and forged a very fast early pace apparently intent on challenging Scott Bagley's 14:30 course record. The first 800m was run under 2:20 and they were 4:45 at the mile mark. Trailing the McMullens were a pack of more sensible runners led by Edinboro State (Pa.) College XC team who were in Rochester to observe the high school races, which attracted 3500+ runners from over 160 schools. Also in the pack were local stars Mike Hoban and Ray Stemmer. Just past the 1.75-mile mark in the course with the McMullen Bros. Still holding a 75m lead the course forks out of the picnic glen for a turn-around loop on a paved bike path. At this point both Charlie and Tim took a wrong turn. They had arrived late and were unable to jog the course before the race so they took the road less traveled by and that made all the difference.

Mike Hulme of Edinboro ran away with the win by 20 seconds over hard charging Senior star Mike Hoban. Ray Stemmer in 4th was the only other local finisher to break into the top 6.

The distaff side saw Buffalonian Marguerite Ekiss defeat perennial winner Lynne Fox and local Master Mary Shaver in a relatively slow 19:15. This was well off Barb Miller's 18:06 course record.

A balanced Aquinas Alumni swiped the Alumni Challenge Cup with Leo Finucane (10th) and Bob Birecree (14th) leading the way. Aquinas' total of 112 points (10,14,25,26 and 37) just nipped teams from Greece Athena (142 pts: 7,8,13,46 and 68) and perennial power McQuaid (157 pts.: 15,18,30,34 and 60). The McQuaid Alumni ran without pre-race favorite Pete Glavin who was stranded in New Jersey due to Hurricane Gloria. Certainly the McQuaid Alumni will return the Challenge Cup to its rightful spot next year.

I recall timing this race and watching both Charlie and Tim McMullen run by me at the finish line going in completely the opposite direction from the rest of the runners. Charlie gave me a shrug and said "where do we go now?" They probably ran an extra ½ mile. Charlie and Tim both admitted that they had arrived late and did not have an opportunity to preview the course.
